EVENTS RECAP

A Look At Past Events

NJCU Jazz- New Jersey City University celebrated New Jersey's 350th birthday with a Jazz concert at Owen Grundy Pier. New Jersey City University Alumni Jazz Big Band performed along with vocalist and guitarist John Pizzarelli and his father, the legendary jazz guitarist Bucky Pizzarelli. Their performances paid tribute to Frank Sinatra, Count Basie, Glenn Miller and Tommy Dorsey.

Golden Door Film Festival- The historic Landmark Loew's Jersey Theatre began its fourth annual Golden Door International Film Festival with a red carpet event and two screenings. They screened "Six Letter Word," a 23-minute short, as well as "The Odd Way Home." Both films star Rumer Willis, the daughter of Bruce Willis and Demi Moore. The rest of the festival ran from Thursday, Sept. 18 through Sunday, Sept. 21.

Fourth Annual All about Downtown Street Fair- The Historic Downtown Special Improvement District's All About Downtown Street Fair took over Newark Avenue in Jersey City on Saturday as thousands flooded the street to enjoy a day of food, music, art, unique merchandise for sale, and much more.

Washington Park Live- Washington Park Live! Returned to the recreational area that straddles the border between Jersey City and Union City on Saturday. The daylong party featured music, art by local artists, a beer garden and much more.

2014 Usatf-NJ Men's & Women's Half Marathon Championship- The 13.1 mile route traveled through Liberty State Park and along the Hudson River before returning to the Newport Town Center, with views of the Statue of Liberty, Ellis Island, the Verrazano Narrows Bridge and the Manhattan skyline.
