The City of Jersey City Partners with the Mo’Hair Foundation for a Thanksgiving Community Feast

JERSEY CITY – The City of Jersey City is pleased to announce its partnership with the non-profit, Mo’Hair Foundation for a Thanksgiving Day Community Feast from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on Thursday, November 28, 2013 on Storms Avenue between Bergen and Nevins Avenue.

“During this holiday season we are proud to partner with the local non-profit, Mo’Hair Foundation, for such a great cause,” said Mayor Fulop. “Monique Smith has been a community leader and small business owner here in Jersey City for more than 25 years. Her efforts to feed the senior citizens, as well as the less fortunate, are not only a worthy cause but a reason to be thankful.”

The Mo’Hair Foundation is under the leadership of Monique Smith, the owner of Monique’s Techniques, and the host of the annual Thanksgiving feast for the seniors and homeless. However, this year, as she also partners with Pacific Check Cashing & Financial Services of Jersey City, we expect to have a Thanksgiving that everyone will remember.

The Thanksgiving Day Community Feast will be an outdoor event featuring heated tents, live entertainment, and a variety of holiday fare. Approximately 1,000 people are expected to be fed.

There will be NO PARKING on Storms Avenue, between Bergen and Nevins Avenue on Thursday, November 28, 2013 from 6:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m.

For more information on the Mo’Hair Foundation or to make a donation, please visit mohairfoundation.com or call 1-877-664-2478.
